Executive Summary

Ida Darragh CPM, Chairperson

The North American Registry of Midwives (NARM) is the leading certification agency for direct-entry midwifery in the United States. The NARM Certification credential and/or the NARM Written Examination are required for licensure in most of the states that license direct-entry midwives, and in all the states that license midwives specifically for out-of-hospital birth. NARM's midwifery certification is a state-of-the-art, legally defensible certification program. NARM's CPM certification program is accredited by the National Commission for Certifying Agencies (NCCA), the accrediting division of the Institute for Credentialing Excellence (ICE). ICE/NCCA accreditation means that our certification process was reviewed in detail and meets or exceeds the standards set by ICE for certifying agencies. The NARM Board is responsible for overseeing the operations of the certification program, including processing applications and recertifications, test development and administration, finances, accountability, public education and advocacy, publishing a newsletter, and maintaining up-to-date policies and procedures for all departments.

NARM contracts with Dr Gerald Rosen for psychometric oversight and guidance. NARM maintains a web site (www.narm.org) for distributing information to candidates, certificants, and the general public. In 2014, the NARM Test Department, under the direction of Ida Darragh, oversaw the administration of the NARM Written Examination to 293 certification or licensure candidates. 2014 also saw the conversion of the NARM Written examination from a paper/pencil exam to a computer based test and from an exam offered three times a year in 20 sites, to being offered year round at over a hundred university testing centers. Computer based testing has been well received by the candidates, especially due to the increase in test sites and the convenience of year-round testing.

NARM participates in several major conferences each year representing the CPM credential via attendance, sponsoring an educational booth, or teaching workshops. In 2014, NARM representatives participated in public education about midwifery in exhibit booths at these conferences: The Midwives Alliance of North America (MANA), the American Public Health Association (APHA), the American College of Nurse-Midwives (ACNM), and the National Conference of State Legislators (NCSL). NARM representatives attended or presented at additional conferences, such as the American Association of Birth Centers, the Home Birth Consensus Summit, the US MERA workgroup, the Institute for Credentialing Excellence (ICE), and the Council for Licensure, Enforcement, and Regulation (CLEAR).

Reports 2014

NARM presented workshops related to preceptor-apprentice relationships, charting, ethics, statistics, and legislation to several midwife organizations. The NARM Test Department also participated on the Standards Revision Committee for the Institute for Credentialing Excellence and the Council on Licensure, Enforcement, and Regulation. As chair, Ida also spoke at the annual conference of the Institute for Credentialing Excellence on Legislation and Scope of Practice.

The NARM Applications Department is under the direction of Carol Nelson with assistance in evaluating and processing applications by Sally Nelson and Kate Foreman and several part-time assistants. The NARM Applications Department reports that the number of printed applications mailed continues to drop as more applicants choose to download application materials from the web. The total number of new CPM certifications issued in 2014 was 187, and 428 recertifications were issued. Of the 88 CPMs who were due for recertification but did not recertify, 43 claimed Inactive Status and 45 credentials expired. The total number of midwives who have received the CPM certification by the end of 2014 is 2641.

Treasurer Carol Nelson reports that NARM is financially solvent. NARM's income is received from NARM application and recertification fees, and from test sales to candidates taking the exam for licensure. The total income during 2014 was $420,646.78. Normal operating expenses ran $387,133. The remainder is set aside for future projects such as updating the website, purchasing office equipment, or planning for the Job Analysis.

Shannon Anton directs NARM's Accountability Department, which handles complaints against CPMs and follows a formal Grievance Mechanism. Complaints are handled first in local peer review and then by the NARM Grievance Mechanism, if needed. This process has worked exceptionally well in the resolution of grievances and in assuring the accountability of CPMs. In 2014, NARM processed two new complaints. One was processed through Complaint Review and the other is still in process. Since 1995, NARM has addressed 34 complaints through the accountability process. Six CPM credentials have been revoked.

Debbie Pulley, in Public Education and Advocacy, also acts as secretary to the board. She handles hundreds of phone calls and e-mails every month from CPMs, candidates, and the general public. She keeps the board minutes of the weekly board conference calls and any other board meetings. Debbie manages the web site and all of NARM's documents including the Application Packet and the Candidate Information Bulletin.

Elan Vital McAllister is the public member of the NARM Board. Elan is the director of Choices in Childbirth in New York City and serves as a public advocate for birth options and as a doula.

Miriam Khalsa is responsible for keeping records of all policy decisions made by the board during our weekly phone calls and twice-yearly board meetings. She organizes all current policies that define how NARM operates.

A major accomplishment for NARM in 2014 was the continuation of work with the U.S. MERA organizations: seven midwifery organizations representing professional associations, educational accreditation, and midwife credentialing in the U.S. Begun as a result of conversations at the International Confederation of Midwives in Prague in the Czech Republic in June, 2014, representatives have met yearly to discuss improving midwifery options for all mothers, most specifically through the licensure of CPMs. Organizations participating are: Accreditation Commission for Midwifery Education (ACME), American College of Nurse-Midwives (ACNM), American Midwifery Certification Board (AMCB), Midwifery Education Accreditation Council (MEAC), Midwives Alliance of North America (MANA), National Association of Certified Professional Midwives (NACPM), and North American Registry of Midwives (NARM). NARM looks forward to continuing to work with the organizations in the future.

NARM Income and Expenses

Carol Nelson LM, CPM, Treasurer

The year 2015 was a good year for NARM from a fiscal standpoint. We ended the year with money in the bank and all expenses paid. The certification process has taken a lot of financial resources and continues to take more as we grow in numbers.

NARM occasionally receives grants for specific projects, such as the 1995 and 2001 Job Analysis surveys. Most years, our income is based on receipts from certification applicants.

Our total income for 2014 was $420,646.78. NARM's main sources of income is from test fees and application fees. Applications income includes fees for processing certification and recertification applications and from test sale to state licensing agencies. Our income from the Applications Department in 2014 was $378,321.45. Test Sales are from the states that use the NARM exam in their Licensures/Certification process, which in 2014 was $42,325.33. The amount received from test sales decreases every year as more and more states now require their licensure candidates to complete the CPM process, so those candidate's fees are now reflected in the applications income rather than test sales. Expenditures for 2014 were $387,133 and include categories such as Applications staff, office expenses, contracts with our psychometrician and testing company, and legal consultant, membership and fees for regulatory and credentialing organizations, and the many conferences that NARM attends to promote the CPM credential.

Reports 2014

As the Treasurer for NARM, I believe meeting current expenses and planning for anticipated future expenses is the only fiscally responsible way to run our organization. We need to not only cover current costs, but we must think ahead to future projects, both mandated and innovative, and must therefore ensure that reserve funds are available for those projects. The Job Analysis is one such project, as is maintaining NARM's applications office with necessary equipment and staff. To remain state of the art in testing, we must continually invest in test development and accreditation. Other projects include continued work on Item Writing and Cut Score Workshops, and education, advocacy and participation in national and international midwifery initiatives.

Our expenses are set to allow for an annual increase in net assets, so that NARM establishes a reserve fund for mandated large projects such as the job analysis and item writing and cut-score workshops. A few of our main expenses are: Consultants that run our Applications Office and the Testing Company we work with, Printing, Postage, Telephone, Conference Fees (going to conferences to promote CPMs and the Midwives Model of Care, education and advocacy initiatives), Dues/Membership in organizations such as the Institute for Credentialing Excellence (ICE), and Council on Licensure, Enforcement and Regulation (CLEAR), Insurance, Legal Fees (to be sure we stay Legally Defensible), Office

Reports 2014

Expenses and Supplies. Total expenses in 2014 came to $385,854.60.

North American Registry of Midwives uses Quickbooks for accounting.

We are looking forward to NARM's continued growth in 2015.

With the growth of our certification process and more Certified Professional Midwives each year, we feel honored to be doing our part to move midwifery forward and to promote the Midwives Model of Care as a viable option for women and families through out North America.

NARM Accountability Committee

Shannon Anton LM, CPM, Director of Accountability

NARM Accountability Committee follows Complaint Review and Grievance Mechanism policies to address complaints against CPMs and CPM applicants. Legal advice is sought when appropriate. NARM Board receives regular updates regarding the activities of Accountability Committee.

NARM accountability processes work to address concerns regarding competent midwifery practice. The NARM Board reserves the right to evaluate, in its sole discretion, the appropriate application of NARM's Complaint Review and Grievance Mechanism. Complaints received by the NARM Board that do not involve issues relating to competent midwifery practice will not be addressed through NARM Complaint Review or Grievance Mechanism.

NARM will not begin the processes of Complaint Review or Grievance Mechanism with a

Reports 2014

CPM who is also facing regulatory investigation, or civil or criminal litigation. NARM will apply these processes only after such proceedings are concluded. It is the responsibility of the complainant to notify NARM within 90 days of the conclusion of proceeding.

Participation in peer review or peer review education is mandatory for CPM recertification. The CPM credential is renewed every three years. A CPM with inactive or expired status is bound by all policies regarding NARM Community Peer Review, Complaint Review, and Grievance Mechanism. Failure to respond to a complaint will result in revocation of the credential.

Participation in NARM Complaint Review or Grievance Mechanism is mandatory for a CPM applicant named in a complaint.

Since the beginning of the CPM credential in 1995 through 2014, this committee has addressed complaints through NARM Complaint Review 24 times, and through NARM Grievance Mechanism ten times. One complaint against a CPM Applicant was confidentially addressed through a committee of Board members utilizing the Complaint Review process. Four CPM credentials have been revoked due to noncompliance with Grievance Mechanism outcomes. Two CPM credentials were revoked due to lack of participation in response to complaints.

After confirming falsification of CPM information, another CPM credential was revoked. Revocations occurred in 2000, 2003, 2004, 2009, 2010, and 2012.

NARM Accountability received two complaints in 2014. One complaint was resolved through Complaint Review. One complaint had Complaint Review pending for the following year.

Test Department

Ida Darragh LM, CPM, Director of Testing

Major Tasks of the Test Department in 2014 included:

1. Maintaining yearly renewal of NARM's accreditation by the National Commission of Credentialing Agencies (NCCA), the accrediting arm of the Institute for Credentialing Excellence (ICE).
2. Presenting the Legislative Workshop or workshops on Preceptor-Apprentice Relationships, Charting for Midwives, and How to Become a CPM in Nevada
3. Working with the CPMs in states considering licensure. NARM board members regularly participate in e-mail and telephone discussion with midwives in states seeking licensure and sometimes visit midwives, regulatory agencies, and legislators in those states. We wrote letters regarding midwifery legislation and/or spoke on the scope of practice of CPMs for legislative committees in several states, including Michigan, Maryland, and Delaware.
4. Training and recertifying NARM's Qualified Evaluators who administer the NARM Skills Assessment to the PEP candidates. In 2014, QE training workshops were held at the MANA conference in St Louis, and at a workshop in Las Vegas, NV
5. The NARM Written examination was administered by paper/pencil on February 19 to 114 candidates. In June, administration of the exam was converted to computer. From June-December, 180 candidates took the exam by computer.
6. Attending the annual ICE and CLEAR conferences, participating on several committees

NARM Testing

The NARM Written Examination was given to 293 candidates from 38 states, four Canadian provinces, and six other foreign countries.

Reports 2014

In 2014, the pass rate for the Written Examination was 71%. The pass rate for candidates taking the exam for the first time is 82%.

Test Development

Test questions are written by teams during the Item Writing workshops offer by NARM throughout the year. All questions are reviewed again by two teams of item writers. Final reviews are done by the NARM Board. In 2014, NARM administered form K and M by paper and forms N and O by computer. Previous forms of the exam have contained 350 questions, but the conversion to computer based testing allowed NARM to reduce the exam to 300 questions.

In 2014, the NARM Test Committee met on October 23 in St Louis to review and evaluate current test questions. The committee members were Ruth Walsh, Debbie Perry, Bettie Sheets, Gretchen Spicer, and Kim Pekin. Recommendations from this committee will be used to determine which test questions will be revised or replaced.

NARM Participation in NOCA and CLEAR

The NARM Test Department and Board of Directors participates in the national conferences of both the Institute for Credentialing Excellence and the Council for Licensure, Enforcement, and Regulation. ## Policies & Procedures

Miriam Atma Khalsa, CPM
Director of Policies and Procedures

The NARM board regularly reviews existing policies for the purpose of clarifying the information in a previous policy or for establishing new policy.

New and amended policies in 2014 include:

- The NARM exam was moved from a paper exam offered three times a year to a computer based exam. Applicants will be able to schedule their exam within days of becoming eligible and will receive their results within a few days of taking the exam. They will have six months to take the exam once approved and six more months if they fail and have to retake it. The exam can only be taken once every three months and not more than four times per year.
- Policy and procedure was created for the transition of MEAC accredited schools to the new eligibility requirements by January 1, 2015 (applicants applying through PEP have been required to meet the new eligibility requirements since January 1, 2013). The Board also approved ending early testing for students in MEAC accredited schools at a date to be determined in 2015.

- NARM reviewed and clarified what roles multiple students at the same birth can receive credit for and use on their application.
- The NARM Board added to the definition of Transports (the student must remain with the client through the birth and immediate postpartum period. The supervising preceptor must be present until transfer of care has occurred).
- Preceptor qualifications were modified to include Certified Midwives (CM) and currency of at least 10 out-of-hospital births in the last 3 years.
- UK Midwives applying for their CPM will need to document 10 out-of-hospital births in the U.S. which must be signed off by a qualified preceptor.

- The Board approved a proposal for ICA verification to be more specific to NARM requirements.
- Fees were adjusted for Recertification applications that are incomplete and/or late.
- NARM created a new CPM-Retired category and set the policies, procedures, and fees for CPMs wanting to apply for it.
- In addition to documents already required to be sent in for audits, the Board approved adding one example of an Informed Consent document used for shared decision making during care.
- NARM began the sharing of Accountability files electronically (formerly sent by USPS) and updated the consent forms to be HIPPA compliant with this new procedure.
- The Board approved CEUs for CPMs who participate in a Grievance Review.

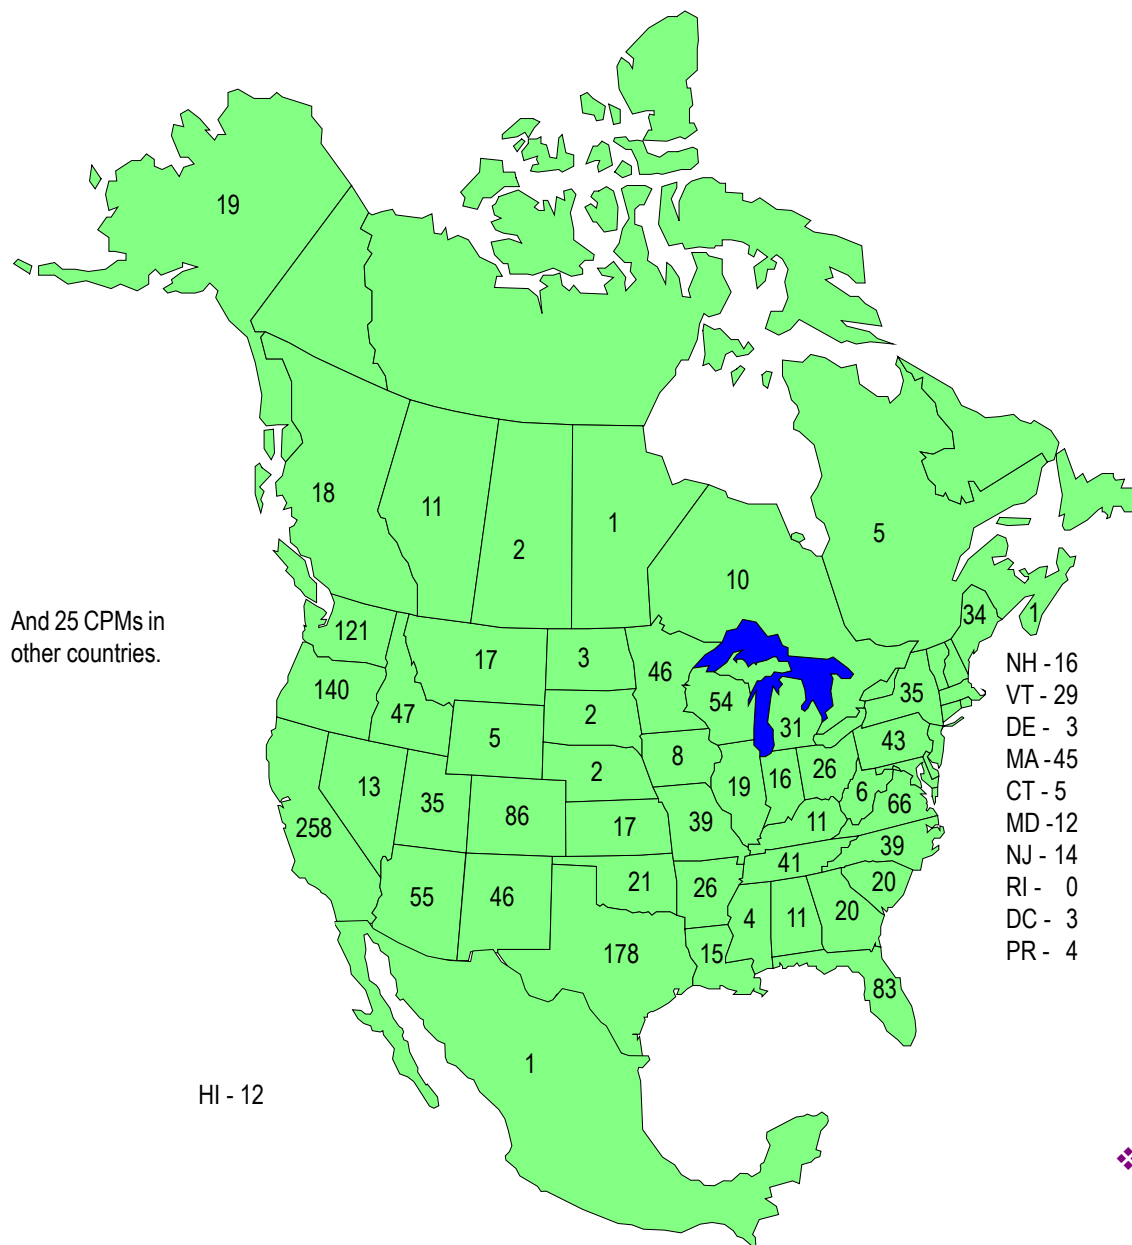

- The Board created policy for NARM Board members who endorse a project or commercial venture. Current Board members may endorse a project in commercial venture personally but not as a Board Member. Any commercial endorsement would have to be approved by the full board. Previous Board Members may endorse a commercial project as a Former Board Member.
- The following new disclaimer was approved that will be required for use in all correspondence in the future:
